Local News

Mercedes-Benz explores sourcing green iron from Namibia for vehicle production. Mercedes-Benz is exploring the use of green hydrogen-produced iron from Namibia in its vehicle manufacturing supply chain after signing an agreement with German-Namibian company Hylron to advance the technology towards industrial-scale production. The two companies signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on 10 November 2026 during the Mercedes-Benz Sustainability Dialogue 2026, following a pilot project that produced iron for a demonstrator component used in the all-electric Mercedes-Benz EQS. – The Brief

Namibia secures livestock export access to Mauritius despite FMD outbreaks. Namibia has secured access to the Mauritian market for cattle, sheep and goat exports despite ongoing foot-and-mouth disease (FMD) outbreaks in the //Kharas and Zambezi regions, as authorities prepare for a second round of compulsory vaccinations to contain the disease. The Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Water and Land Reform said on Wednesday that negotiations with international trading partners had enabled livestock exports to Mauritius, subject to compliance with veterinary requirements and livestock movement restrictions. – The Brief

Nearly 800 Meatco jobs at risk as FMD crisis deepens. Nearly 800 employees of the Meat Corporation of Namibia (Meatco) face possible salary reductions, shorter working hours and retrenchments as the company struggles with mounting financial pressure following the suspension of international beef exports due to the foot-and-mouth disease (FMD) outbreak. Meatco said on Wednesday that the suspension of beef exports on 23 September 2026 had severely affected its revenue, with international markets historically accounting for approximately 85% of its earnings. – The Brief

Walvis Bay anchors N$29.1 billion September trade. The port of Walvis Bay cemented its position as Namibia's primary trade gateway in September, facilitating a combined N$13.2 billion in imports and exports as maritime and road corridors moved the bulk of the nation's merchandise, according to the latest International Merchandise Trade Statistics Bulletin released by the Namibia Statistics Agency (NSA). Namibia recorded total exports valued at N$12.2 billion and imports amounting to N$16.9 billion, resulting in a trade deficit of N$4.7 billion in September. – Windhoek Observer

Pension funds urged to invest N$30bn. Namibia's pension funds and long-term insurers should consider investing N$30 billion in domestic infrastructure over the next five years, former Bank of Namibia governor Johannes Gawaxab has proposed, as the Government Institutions Pension Fund (GIPF) pushes for a common standard to determine which projects are ready for institutional investment. – Market Watch

Company News

Aspen gets regulatory nod in Brazil and SA for generic injectable semaglutide. Aspen Pharmacare has received regulatory approval for its generic injectable semaglutide in Brazil and South Africa, paving the way for commercialisation to begin over the next few months. Semaglutide is indicated, in combination with diet and exercise, for the treatment of adults with type 2 diabetes mellitus to improve glycaemic control, the group said. In July the group received regulatory approval for the product in Canada. South Africa's national department of health regards type 2 diabetes as a major and growing public health crisis, accounting for about 90% of all diabetes cases. – Business Day

Capitec nears R600bn valuation as SA banks top R2-trillion. Capitec, South Africa's most valuable banking group, is closing in on a R600bn market valuation, leading the banking recovery from the March wobble when the US and Israel launched an aerial offensive on Iran, dragging down global markets. – Business Day

Dipula lifts full-year dividend as earnings rise. JSE-listed diversified real estate investment trust (Reit) Dipula Properties Limited posted an 8.6% increase in full-year distributable earnings per share to 62.17 cents for the financial year ended 31 August 2026. This was supported by retail rental resilience, active portfolio recycling, and falling borrowing costs. The group declared a final dividend of 28.45 cents per share on 11 November 2026, lifting its total distribution for the year to 55.96 cents per share, up 8.6% from 51.53 cents per share in the 2025 financial period.– Moneyweb

Vodacom seeks partners to build out AI data centres in Africa. Vodacom Group will seek partners to build out artificial-intelligence data centres in Africa to share costs and add additional expertise, Chief Executive Officer Shameel Joosub said. The Johannesburg-based company has already partnered with billionaire Strive Masiyiwa's Cassava Technologies and ElSewedy Electric Co to build out an AI data centre in Egypt, and will look in other markets such as South Africa and Kenya, he said in an interview. - Moneyweb

Woolworths shares slide as sales growth stalls. Shares in retail giant Woolworths plunged around 9% in morning trade on Wednesday, after the group published a trading update that flagged stalling sales growth for its current financial year. The group says its 2027 financial year kicked off subdued, as high fuel prices, inflation and interest rates continue to constrain consumer demand and discretionary spend, with shoppers increasingly prioritising promotional offerings and essential purchases. Due to the challenging trading environment across the South African and Australian markets, group turnover and concession sales for the period grew marginally by 0.2%, and by 0.1% in constant currency, it said. – Moneyweb

SA Economic News

Foot-and-mouth disease spreads to South Africa's wildlife. South African authorities are raising concerns over new foot-and-mouth disease cases threatening the country's livestock and game industries, as cattle farmers continue to reel from one of the worst outbreaks in the nation's history. The epidemic was declared a national disaster earlier this year. It has resulted in export bans and substantial losses for cattle farmers. A countrywide, state-sponsored vaccination drive is starting to take effect, but the disease now appears to be spreading to wildlife across several regions, officials at the Department of Agriculture told lawmakers on Tuesday. – Moneyweb
